Subject: Coretta Scott King Resolution

2005 Assembly Joint Resolution

Relating to: the life and public service of Coretta Scott King

Whereas, Coretta Scott King was the second of three children born to Odadiah and Bernice Scott, entering this world on April 27, 1927 in Marion, Alabama; and

Whereas, Coretta Scott King was an excellent student, graduating first in her high school class, and then subsequently attending Antioch College in Yellow Springs, Ohio and the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, Massachusetts; and

Whereas, Coretta Scott King, in 1952, met a young Boston University theology student, who, on their first date told her that she possessed the four things that he thought important for a wife to have: "Character, Personality, Intelligence and Beauty"; and

Whereas, Coretta Scott King married Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on June 18, 1953, before 350 adoring wedding guests, thus commencing an extraordinary (yet brief) life journey together; and

Whereas, Coretta Scott king was the perfect partner and constant companion of her husband, Dr. King, exhibiting unparalleled fortitude, strength and calmness during the ordeals and tensions surrounding the Montgomery Bus Boycott Movement; and

Whereas, Coretta Scott King and Dr. King were the proud parents of four remarkable children (Yolonda, Martin III, Dexter and Bernice) each, in turn, are making significant contributions to society; and

Whereas, Coretta Scott King, following the shocking assassination of Dr. King in 1968, elected not to shrink from public service, instead she embraced the legacy of her late husband with unprecedented dignity, courage and grace; and

Whereas, Coretta Scott King will be forever remembered as the architect and driving force behind many worthwhile initiatives that include: working relentlessly to establish a national holiday for her slain husband, founding the Martin Luther King Jr. Center for Nonviolent Social Change and convening the New Coalition of Conscience, which brings together 750 civil and human rights organizations; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the members of the Wisconsin Legislature pay their respect to the Late Mrs. Coretta Scott King for her service and her lifelong dedication to the civil rights crusade, and her personal quest to America and the world a more humane and loving place.
